Dear Professor Margineanu:

I appreciate very much your kind letter of May 26, and I appreciate also the honor that is implied in your very favorable treatment of our work here.

In response to your specific request I am arranging to send you a photograph which I hope will be suitable for reproduction. Today I am also sending with my compliments a copy of the monograph, "Primary Mental Abilities," which has just been published by the University of Chicago Press.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

L. L. Thurstone.
